

EX-TREASURER OF LEE COUNTY, MISS. HELD; HAD STILL

TUPELO, Miss., April 14. (Sp.)—The first wildcat still of the season, captured in this locality, was brought to town last night by Sheriff Inman, M. A. Crawford and E. M. Maynard. It was located on the clabonno place, about 10 miles northeast of Tupelo. Will Berryhill, who is now lodged in the county jail, is alleged to have operated it.

It was a rude copper kettle of about 15 gallons capacity, and was being run in Berryhill's smokehouse, right on the side of the public road, it is said. About three gallons of liquor was found on the place, and something like 100 gallons of beer. The kettle showed that it was homemade, being composed of sheets of copper bradded together, and there was enough of the material left over to have made another one of the same size. It was also found in the smokehouse.

Another raid was made several miles northeast of Tupelo yesterday afternoon, which resulted in the capture of another still more interesting from many standpoints than the first one. This one was made of what appeared to be a wooden candy bucket, attached to which was a worm about six feet long curled in the shape of a corkscrew. Tom Lloyd, ex-county treasurer of Lee county, is held for operating this one.

Lloyd was brought to town and placed under bond for his appearance Monday morning, at which time his case will be called. There was no liquor found at his still, and the indications were that he had been made; so he is said to be resting his defense on the proposition that he was only trying to make liquor, and that he does not know whether his plan would have succeeded or not.

Arrangements have been made for a special lecture on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Harriet Luella McCollum, who is giving a series of lectures on practical psychology in Goodwyn institute this week and next.

I. O. O. F. HOME TRUSTEES MEET IN CLARKSVILLE

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., April 14. (Sp.)—The semiannual meeting of the trustees of the I. O. O. F. home was held here Tuesday and Tuesday night. Those present were M. P. Walden, Paris; H. G. Collett, Memphis; J. P. Gray, Johnson City; B. A. Brown, Knoxville; T. E. McReynolds, A. R. Gholson, Dancy Fort, Clarksville; Grand Master J. D. ## PRITCHARD WILL CASE IS REVERSED

SENATORIA, Miss., April 14. (Sp.)—The Pritchard will case that was tried in the chancery court here a year ago was reversed in the supreme court this week. This case attracted considerable attention at the time of its trial because of the fact that Mrs. Pritchard, one of the wealthiest women in North Mississippi, seemed to have developed a fondness in her old age for making wills. Three different wills were discovered and some one or two lost, but shown to have been executed by her.

MARINE ENGINEER AT PORT TAMPA, FLORIDA, SAYS WORK WAS BURDEN

Boltze, Employed on Dredge "Barnard" at Port Tampa, Suffered
Six Years From Stomach Trouble.

"MY MOTHER ADVISED ME TO TRY TANLAC"

Declares Condition Has Improved So Since Taking Tanlac He Can Stand His Work Better
Than in a Long Time.

"I have just finished my first bottle of Tanlac and have already improved so much that I am ready to tell everybody about it," said Frederick W. Boltze, who is engineer on the government dredge "Barnard," at Port Tampa, and whose address is R. F. D. No. 3, Tampa, Fla.

"It is certainly an unusual medicine to do so much for me in so short a time," he continued. "I have been taking it only ten days, and shall make it a point every opportunity I have to say a good word for it.

I have had the worst sort of trouble from indigestion for the past six years. My appetite was very irregular, some days I felt like eating and other days I had no desire for food of any kind, but no matter what I ate, or whether it was little or much, my food would ferment and the gas from it would keep me suffering for hours. Nothing helped me so I kept losing strength and getting worse until three or four weeks ago I got so played out that my work was a burden to me.

My mother advised me to try Tanlac, as she was taking it with fine results, and realizing that I must either get something to get me right or soon stop trying to work, I bought a bottle. Well, it may sound unreasonable and you may believe it or not, but it's a fact, I am now feeling as well as I ever did in my life. I can eat just anything I want at any time, and never feel a touch of indigestion. I sleep as sound as a child at night, get up in the morning thoroughly rested and am able to stand my work better than I have in a long time. I am going to take several more bottles of Tanlac, and can't help praising it for the good it has done and is still doing me."

Tanlac is sold in Memphis by the following agents: Warnock, Drug, Co., Weiss Pharmacy, Doyle-Turley, Drug Co., A. Renkert & Co., two stores, L. H. Kilpatrick, Wadlington & Purdy, Moore's Pharmacy, Taylor & Taylor, three stores, Washburn-Lyle, Drug Co.,
